

Kim Ann Chute

CV Supporting Candidacy for Election to the EPAC Board of Directors

Kim Ann Chute has been a member of the Ethics Practitioners' Association of Canada (EPAC) since 2010. She brings with her over 5 years of applied experience in developing and implementing ethics programs and policies, ethical risk management and ethics training.

Kim Ann has over twenty years experience in both the private and public sectors. For the last 14 years she has served in various management positions with the Staff of the Non-Public Funds, Canadian Forces (NPF), also known as the Canadian Forces Morale and Welfare Services (CFMWS), where she is currently the Senior Advisor Conflict Management. In this position she has overall responsibility for providing conflict management services for a staff of 5,000 part and full time staff across Canada. She is also responsible for the corporate ethics program and policy and is the Level 2, Ethics Officer (advisor to the CEO/DG) for the Public portion of CFMWS.

Kim Ann holds a B. Adm (1997) from the University of Ottawa and an Executive Certificate Program in Conflict Management (2012) from the University of Windsor Law School. She is currently completing the Certificate Program from the Centre on Value and Ethics from Carleton University (June 2015). She is a member in good standing with the Alternative Dispute Resolution Institute of Canada (ADRIC) and has maintained her Q. Med (Qualified Mediator) designation since 2012. Kim Ann is also fluently bilingual in English and French.

Kim Ann is passionate about generating awareness and fostering dialogue on values and ethics. She is most proud of her work in delivering educational workshops that combine values and ethics with conflict management as the combination appeals to all levels of employees both personally and professionally. Her enthusiasm is apparent in her work and she would like to continue this through a position on the EPAC Board of Directors.
